		In this course, we will learn the principles of everything: creation, the human race, the plan of salvation, and the origins of the people of Israel.
		BIB 113 The Bible: The Chosen Nation – English Instruction (Cantonese Interpretation)	Instructor	Prof. Anthony Barthels (Practical Theology)
		Oct 5 – Nov 2 / Mon / 7:30pm – 9:30pm (HKT) / 4 sessions	Day off	19 th Oct
		In this course, we will see how God made a great nation out of the family of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God saved them from Egypt, gave them laws, led them into the promised land, and blessed them through wise leaders.
		BIB 114 The Bible: The Fallen Nation – English Instruction (Cantonese Interpretation)	Instructor	Prof. Anthony Barthels (Practical Theology)
		Nov 9-30 / Mon / 7:30pm – 9:30pm (HKT) / 4 sessions
Diploma of Church Ministry D.C.M.	Online	In this course, we will learn about the idolatry and disobedience of God's people and their consequences. The kingdom was divided. Powerful enemies were approaching. Would God remain faithful to his promises? Would a remnant survive? And, most importantly, would the Messiah still come?
		BIB 115 The Bible: The Coming of the Savior – Cantonese Instruction	Instructor	Dr. Angus K.F. Cheung
	In-Person	Dec 7-28 / Mon / 7:30pm – 9:30pm (HKT) / 4 sessions		(Academic Dean, Historical Theology and Hermeneutics)
		In this course, we will learn how God came into our world in human flesh. We will also discover Jesus' early ministry: his entry into ministry, his teachings, and his miracles.

		SYS-231 Luther's Small Catechism 1 – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Mr. Chen
		Sep 3 – Nov 26 / Thur / 7pm – 9:30pm (HKT) / 12 sessions	Day off	1 st Oct
		This course studies Christian doctrine and life using Luther's Small Catechism as an outline of the Bible's teaching. The specific focus in this course is the three articles of the Apostles' Creed. Students will understand, treasure, and fix in their minds the Bible-based doctrines that we find in these parts. They will also begin to become familiar with some diverging doctrines related to these parts that have divided different Christian groups. In addition, they will grasp the importance of the biblical doctrines and be ready to explain them to others.
		SYS-234 Law and Gospel – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Mr. Zhao
		Sep 1 – Nov 17 / Tue / 7:30pm – 10pm (HKT) / 11 sessions	Day off	6 th Oct
		This course offers an organized exploration of the Lutheran doctrine of Law and Gospel, providing students with a deeper understanding of God's Word. Through this study, students will examine the definitions, functions, and applications of Law and Gospel in the Christian life. The course emphasizes the proper distinction between Law and Gospel, equipping students to apply these concepts thoughtfully and effectively in both personal faith and ministry contexts. By the end of the course, students will have a solid foundation vis-à-vis this core theological framework and its significance for Christian teaching and practice.

Diploma of Church Ministry D.C.M.	Online	BIB-211 Old Testament Survey 1 – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Mr. Xu
		Sep 2 – Dec 23 / Wed / 7:30pm – 10pm (HKT) / 16 sessions	Day off	7 th Oct
		This course studies selected events and key people in the Old Testament from the book of Genesis to the book of Ruth. It observes “what people do, what God does, and how God’s promise of the Savior continues”. Students will describe some of the basic contents and main themes of these books. They will describe some of the prophecies about Christ in these books. In addition, they will apply to their own lives “what people do, what God does, and how God’s promise has continued”.
		BIB-213 Life of Christ – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Mr. Xu
		Sep 1 – Dec 22 / Tue / 7:30pm – 10pm (HKT) / 16 sessions	Day off	6 th Oct
		This course provides an overview of the four Gospels in the New Testament: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. By reading various passages in the Gospels with some background information, students will gain a deeper understanding of those events in the Bible, especially focusing on the life of Jesus Christ in his first coming to the world. Meanwhile, through reading these passages, students will also learn the messages of God’s law and God’s gospel that they contain.
	In-Person	BIB-216 Basic Bible Interpretation – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Daniel Kingsbury (New Testament and Greek)
		Nov 2 – Dec 14 / Mon / 7:30pm – 10pm (HKT) / 7 sessions
		This course teaches the basic principles of understanding and interpreting the Bible. We will learn why interpretation is important, how to employ simple methods to help us study the Bible, and how to defend its authenticity. By the end of this course, we will have the tools to read and understand the Bible more effectively.
		PAS-242 Christian Family – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Rev. Robert Siirila
		Sep 7 – Oct 26 / Mon / 8pm – 10:30pm (HKT) / 6 sessions	Day off	5 th , 12 th Oct
		What is God’s design for the Christian family? This course explores how marriage, parenting, and family life reflect God’s purposes and how these differ from worldly models. We will discover biblical roles, practical ways to show love, and tools for healthier communication. With Scripture as the foundation, we will learn to identify areas for growth and seek God’s help to strengthen relationships. This course will equip us to live out grace and truth in our families, reflecting Christ’s love at home.
In-Person	PAS-243 Equip the Believers to Serve – English Instruction (Cantonese Interpretation)	Instructor	Prof. Anthony Barthels (Practical Theology)
	Sep 2 – Oct 28 / Wed / 7pm – 10pm (HKT) / 9 sessions
Online	This practical course gives us exactly what we need to know to equip God’s people for various types of service. We will understand the meaning of service and become aware of the many ways that we serve. We will learn how to serve God as spouses, single people, parents, and children. We will learn how to serve at work, whether as an employee or as a leader. We will learn how to serve as citizens, friends, and neighbors. We will learn how to model service to the people that we serve in the church, and how to mentor them. Finally, we will learn how to instill this knowledge in others so that they can work together with us to equip God’s people for acts of service.
	PAS-246 Prepare a Basic Devotion – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Mr. Liu
Online	Sep 4 – Dec 4 / Fri / 7:30pm – 10pm (HKT) / 12 sessions	Day off	25 th , Sep, 2 nd Oct
	This course teaches students how to prepare meaningful devotions that are Christ-centered and rooted in Scripture. It covers the essential steps of selecting a text, identifying a clear theme, and applying the message to daily life. Students will learn how to craft devotions that both encourage believers and proclaim the gospel. Through practical exercises and feedback, students will gain confidence in writing and delivering devotions for various ministry settings.

Bachelor and Master Level

Biblical Languages	Online	GRE-482 Greek 2 – Greek Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Daniel Kingsbury (New Testament and Greek)
		Sep 1 – Dec 31 / Tue & Thur / 10am – 12pm (HKT) / 32 sessions	Day off	6 th , 8 th , 27 th , 29 th Oct
		This course builds on the fundamentals learned in Greek 1. After taking Greek 2, students can read fluently and communicate simply in Greek. Students will also learn (in a modern language) how the basic grammar structures taught in Greek 1 work.
		HEB-573 Hebrew Exegesis: Jeremiah – Mandarin & Hebrew Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Timothy Matthies (Old Testament, Hebrew and Symbolics))
Systematic	Online	Sep 3 – Dec 3 / Thur / 7pm-10pm (HKT) / 13 sessions	Day off	1 st Oct
		This course studies, in detail, portions of the Hebrew text of this major Old Testament prophet. This book places before our eyes the crosses and deep sorrow that often come to messengers who bring God’s Word to others, and yet it also comforts us with the promise of Christ, the Righteous Branch of David, who is the LORD our Righteousness. Students will gain a thorough comprehension of the portions of Jeremiah that we study exegetically in Hebrew (about one fourth of the book). They will also increase the speed with which they can read and comprehend prophetic narrative and poetry in Hebrew, expand their grammatical recognition and working vocabulary, and become familiar with some additional reference works for Hebrew exegesis. In addition, they will explore some topics regarding the book of Jeremiah that have deep significance for our Christian faith.
		SYS-434 Soteriology – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Dr. Jonathan Bare (President and Systematics)
		Oct 13 – Dec 8 / Tue / 7pm – 10pm (HKT) / 9 sessions	Prof. William Zhu (Practical Theology)
Biblical Theology	Online	This course provides a focused study of soteriology, that is, the study of the topic of salvation itself, the result of Christ's work. Students will study the topics of faith, conversion, and election, learning to apply these teachings accurately and to respond to common errors. In the second half of the course, students will grow in their understanding of the means through which God works to apply salvation to us – his “Means of Grace”. This will review what has been learned in other courses concerning the Word of God and will provide an in-depth study of the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper. Through this course, students will grow in their commitment to the truth of God’s Word, will be equipped to teach this truth to others, and will be prepared to defend this truth against errors.
		BIB-314 New Testament: The Four Gospels – English Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Daniel Kingsbury (New Testament and Greek)
		Sep 10 – Dec 17 / Thur / 7pm – 10pm (HKT) / 13 sessions	Day off	8 th , 15 th Oct
		In this course, students will study the four Gospels in depth. By the end of this course, students will be able to identify the isagogic information of each Gospel and understand what makes each unique. During this course, the benefits and dangers of the historical-critical methods of Gospel research will be examined and explained. Additionally, literary features of the Gospels will be explored to deepen students’ comprehension of specific passages, enhancing their overall study of the Gospels.
Biblical Theology	Online	BIB-412 Isaiah: The Fifth Gospel – Mandarin Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Timothy Matthies (Old Testament, Hebrew and Symbolics))
		Dec 2 – 30 / Mon, Wed, Fri / 10am – 12pm (HKT) / 12 sessions	Day off	25 th Dec
		This course studies in depth the content and significance of a key Old Testament book: the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. For the benefit of each reader’s personal faith, this book proclaims the realities of human sin and God’s grace, and provides Isaiah’s crucial, divinely inspired prophecies about the Messiah and the church. Students will appreciate Isaiah as a master poet and will search out the meaning of the whole book and of its individual sections. They will also show a basic familiarity with the history of interpretation of the book and with a few issues in current scholarship. In addition, they will describe where the content of this book fits in the history of God’s people and will explain Isaiah’s use of other parts of the Bible, as well as other Bible books’ use of Isaiah.

Historical	Online	HIS-322 The Reformation – English Instruction	Instructor	Prof. Skip Goetzinger
		Sep 7 – early Dec / Mon / 8pm -11pm (HKT) / 13 sessions	Reformation, from the Latin word reformation , carries the meaning of restoration back to the true and unchanging original form. Such were the religious reforms that took place in the Western church in the sixteenth century. The starting point of the Reformation is generally considered to be the time when Martin Luther posted the Ninety-Five Theses in Wittenberg. What distinguished Martin Luther from previous reformers who criticized corruption in the life of the church was that he went to the theological root of the issue, so as to preserve the doctrines of grace and salvation. In this course, the origins and development of the history of the Reformation are focused on, illustrating this scene of Christianity's restoration.
